10. GABORD - you were informed on 24 April 1953 that Provisional Operational Clearance for use of this man on APPLE three was granted.
11. GABNORMAL - (clearance request has been submitted. There is no way of anticipating at what time the procedures will be completed.)
12. AIFACE - you were informed on 24 April 1953 that Provisional Operational Clearance for use of this man as OBTANTIS cook was granted.

Re paragraph 7:

Your proposed use of the Monthly Survey Report as a vehicle for summarizing miscellaneous matters outstanding is regarded as an excellent idea and HQ looks forward to the time when that paragraph will read ACTIONS OUTSTANDING - WASHINGTON: None.

Re paragraph 8:

For your information, PRQ I's and PRQ II's completely filled in and an LCFLUTTER test result should be submitted on each person for whom an operational clearance is requested. In the event that an individual's operational clearance had been granted at an earlier date, his clearance remains valid for use as originally requested as long as the man remains under our control. If the man leaves our control, a new clearance must be requested with an account of his activities and a local police check covering the period he was not under our control. A new clearance must also be requested if the man is to be used in a manner other than that which was originally proposed.
